

WHIG AND TRIBUNE.

W. W. GATES,
D. M. CAMERON,
B. M. WINDOM,
Editors.

JACKSON, SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1871.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look out for the X mark. It will indicate that your subscription to the Whig and Tribune has expired; and it also means that we would be pleased to have you renew it.

STATE NEWS.

A young man's Christian Association was formed in Memphis last week.

Open county polls are said to be very common in the Williamsport country in Maury county.

The Bedford County Fair will commence at Shelbyville, Tuesday, October 10th.

Tullahoma, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has a population of one thousand.

Maj. Josiah H. Hubbard, of Huntington, has determined to move to Nashville, to practice law.

Joseph Ferguson, Tax collector of Dyer county, died at his home in Dyersburg last week.

John Canham Gamble, incarcerated in jail at Troy, died on Sunday night, 13th inst.

Hon. Em. Etheridge, we are glad to learn, is rapidly convalescing from a severe attack of sickness.

Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Sheriff of Shelby county, is in the Hermitage Springs, in Middle Tennessee.

The liquor dealers of Memphis have formed a league for mutual protection and defense.

A son of Hon. Jas. W. Deadrick, one of our Supreme Court Judges, has been elected to the Tennessee Legislature, from Pendleton county.

The city of Memphis voted last Saturday to subscribe $200,000 of stock to the Mississippi River Railroad.

W. W. Price, a son of Col. M. A. Price, the old mail contractor, died at his home in Wilson county last week.

Mod More, a noted gambler, at Memphis was shot and supposed to be fatally injured; by Wynne Cannon, on Saturday last.

The residence of Wm. H. Bratton, on White's Creek, Davidson county, was burned down on Wednesday of last week.

A valuable lead mine has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

A very rich lead mine—equal to any of the Golden State—has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

The Union City Courier says several stores in that place have recently been entered and robbed by burglars.

Rev. L. M. Sanford, an eminent Christian and esteemed citizen, died at his residence in Lawrence county, last week.

Col. A. S. Colyar of Nashville, occasionally tears himself away from the details of law, and indulges in a speech in favor of immigration.

The hotels at Lookout Mountain are said to be more crowded with guests now than at any time during the season.

W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, propose to start a new daily paper at Memphis on Monday next, to be called the Daily Press.

Wm. A. Glenn, Esq., was last week elected Judge of Davidson county, in place of Hon. W. K. Turner, deceased.

A correspondent of the Banner suggests the name of Gen. John C. Vaughan, of East Tennessee, as Speaker of the Senate, in October next.

The McKenize Times of the 19th says Mr. Garland Speed, of that vicinity, was thrown from his horse a few days since, and is, unfortunately, not dangerously hurt.

The Trenton Gazette thinks corn will sell in the Northern portion of Gibson county this fall at one dollar per barrel. The crop is unusually promising.

The Methodists of Maury county are looking for a great time at the Camp meeting soon to assemble at Hurricane Switch, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad.

Isaac Taylor, Esq., aged 93 years, died at his residence in Knox county on the 16th inst. He was for many years a member of the Knox county Court.

The Columbia Herald says somebody lately robbed our old friend Lewis C. Wagoner, of Linden, of $26 in Greenbacks, and $4000 in bonds, the property of the Bank of Tennessee.

The Methodists of Williamson county will have an old fashioned Camp meeting at Pope's old camp ground, ten miles South-west of Franklin, commencing Thursday, the 14th. We'd like to be there to see.

They have opened books at Columbia, for subscription of stock in the Duck River Valley Railroad. The route is designed to tap the North Western road at Johnson's.

In East Tennessee the peach crop is so abundant that the people cannot dry them all, and are not prepared to distill them into hell-broth, and are consequently canning vast quantities for winter use.

Hylinger, the convict who was castrated, shot by Mark L. Phelps, a guard at the penitentiary last Saturday, died on Sunday night. Gov. Senter has offered $250 reward for Phelps.

Mrs. Margaret Dunaway McCann, wife of Maj. J. R. McCann, died at her residence, Antioch, Davidson county, last Sunday night. She was a niece of Col. W. M. Dunaway of this city, and a lady, whom to know was to love.

Frank Hildinger, was sentenced to the penitentiary from Giles county, on the 7th day of the Circuit Court, at Pulaski, and was taken by the Sheriff to Nashville, arriving last Saturday morning, and before he had changed his clothes, was killed by M. L. Phelps who had been a guard at the prison for twenty years. Phelps escaped.

Judge Nathaniel Baxter, of the Davidson county Circuit Court, deeded the other day to Giles county, the Constitutionality of the privilege tax on lawyers, that the law is unconstitutional. The case was that of Col. A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, against the county clerk, and the tax was paid under protest. It was an agreed case, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the law.

WHIG AND TRIBUNE.

W. W. GATES,
D. M. CAMERON,
B. M. WINDOM,
Editors.

JACKSON, SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1871.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look out for the X mark. It will indicate that your subscription to the Whig and Tribune has expired; and it also means that we would be pleased to have you renew it.

STATE NEWS.

A young man's Christian Association was formed in Memphis last week.

Open county polls are said to be very common in the Williamsport country in Maury county.

The Bedford County Fair will commence at Shelbyville, Tuesday, October 10th.

Tullahoma, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has a population of one thousand.

Maj. Josiah H. Hubbard, of Huntington, has determined to move to Nashville, to practice law.

Joseph Ferguson, Tax collector of Dyer county, died at his home in Dyersburg last week.

John Canham Gamble, incarcerated in jail at Troy, died on Sunday night, 13th inst.

Hon. Em. Etheridge, we are glad to learn, is rapidly convalescing from a severe attack of sickness.

Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Sheriff of Shelby county, is in the Hermitage Springs, in Middle Tennessee.

The liquor dealers of Memphis have formed a league for mutual protection and defense.

A son of Hon. Jas. W. Deadrick, one of our Supreme Court Judges, has been elected to the Tennessee Legislature, from Pendleton county.

The city of Memphis voted last Saturday to subscribe $200,000 of stock to the Mississippi River Railroad.

W. W. Price, a son of Col. M. A. Price, the old mail contractor, died at his home in Wilson county last week.

Mod More, a noted gambler, at Memphis was shot and supposed to be fatally injured; by Wynne Cannon, on Saturday last.

The residence of Wm. H. Bratton, on White's Creek, Davidson county, was burned down on Wednesday of last week.

A valuable lead mine has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

A very rich lead mine—equal to any of the Golden State—has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

The Union City Courier says several stores in that place have recently been entered and robbed by burglars.

Rev. L. M. Sanford, an eminent Christian and esteemed citizen, died at his residence in Lawrence county, last week.

Col. A. S. Colyar of Nashville, occasionally tears himself away from the details of law, and indulges in a speech in favor of immigration.

The hotels at Lookout Mountain are said to be more crowded with guests now than at any time during the season.

W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, propose to start a new daily paper at Memphis on Monday next, to be called the Daily Press.

Wm. A. Glenn, Esq., was last week elected Judge of Davidson county, in place of Hon. W. K. Turner, deceased.

A correspondent of the Banner suggests the name of Gen. John C. Vaughan, of East Tennessee, as Speaker of the Senate, in October next.

The McKenize Times of the 19th says Mr. Garland Speed, of that vicinity, was thrown from his horse a few days since, and is, unfortunately, not dangerously hurt.

The Trenton Gazette thinks corn will sell in the Northern portion of Gibson county this fall at one dollar per barrel. The crop is unusually promising.

The Methodists of Maury county are looking for a great time at the Camp meeting soon to assemble at Hurricane Switch, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad.

Isaac Taylor, Esq., aged 93 years, died at his residence in Knox county on the 16th inst. He was for many years a member of the Knox county Court.

The Columbia Herald says somebody lately robbed our old friend Lewis C. Wagoner, of Linden, of $26 in Greenbacks, and $4000 in bonds, the property of the Bank of Tennessee.

The Methodists of Williamson county will have an old fashioned Camp meeting at Pope's old camp ground, ten miles South-west of Franklin, commencing Thursday, the 14th. We'd like to be there to see.

They have opened books at Columbia, for subscription of stock in the Duck River Valley Railroad. The route is designed to tap the North Western road at Johnson's.

In East Tennessee the peach crop is so abundant that the people cannot dry them all, and are not prepared to distill them into hell-broth, and are consequently canning vast quantities for winter use.

Hylinger, the convict who was castrated, shot by Mark L. Phelps, a guard at the penitentiary last Saturday, died on Sunday night. Gov. Senter has offered $250 reward for Phelps.

Mrs. Margaret Dunaway McCann, wife of Maj. J. R. McCann, died at her residence, Antioch, Davidson county, last Sunday night. She was a niece of Col. W. M. Dunaway of this city, and a lady, whom to know was to love.

Frank Hildinger, was sentenced to the penitentiary from Giles county, on the 7th day of the Circuit Court, at Pulaski, and was taken by the Sheriff to Nashville, arriving last Saturday morning, and before he had changed his clothes, was killed by M. L. Phelps who had been a guard at the prison for twenty years. Phelps escaped.

Judge Nathaniel Baxter, of the Davidson county Circuit Court, deeded the other day to Giles county, the Constitutionality of the privilege tax on lawyers, that the law is unconstitutional. The case was that of Col. A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, against the county clerk, and the tax was paid under protest. It was an agreed case, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the law.

WHIG AND TRIBUNE.

W. W. GATES,
D. M. CAMERON,
B. M. WINDOM,
Editors.

JACKSON, SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1871.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look out for the X mark. It will indicate that your subscription to the Whig and Tribune has expired; and it also means that we would be pleased to have you renew it.

STATE NEWS.

A young man's Christian Association was formed in Memphis last week.

Open county polls are said to be very common in the Williamsport country in Maury county.

The Bedford County Fair will commence at Shelbyville, Tuesday, October 10th.

Tullahoma, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has a population of one thousand.

Maj. Josiah H. Hubbard, of Huntington, has determined to move to Nashville, to practice law.

Joseph Ferguson, Tax collector of Dyer county, died at his home in Dyersburg last week.

John Canham Gamble, incarcerated in jail at Troy, died on Sunday night, 13th inst.

Hon. Em. Etheridge, we are glad to learn, is rapidly convalescing from a severe attack of sickness.

Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Sheriff of Shelby county, is in the Hermitage Springs, in Middle Tennessee.

The liquor dealers of Memphis have formed a league for mutual protection and defense.

A son of Hon. Jas. W. Deadrick, one of our Supreme Court Judges, has been elected to the Tennessee Legislature, from Pendleton county.

The city of Memphis voted last Saturday to subscribe $200,000 of stock to the Mississippi River Railroad.

W. W. Price, a son of Col. M. A. Price, the old mail contractor, died at his home in Wilson county last week.

Mod More, a noted gambler, at Memphis was shot and supposed to be fatally injured; by Wynne Cannon, on Saturday last.

The residence of Wm. H. Bratton, on White's Creek, Davidson county, was burned down on Wednesday of last week.

A valuable lead mine has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

A very rich lead mine—equal to any of the Golden State—has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

The Union City Courier says several stores in that place have recently been entered and robbed by burglars.

Rev. L. M. Sanford, an eminent Christian and esteemed citizen, died at his residence in Lawrence county, last week.

Col. A. S. Colyar of Nashville, occasionally tears himself away from the details of law, and indulges in a speech in favor of immigration.

The hotels at Lookout Mountain are said to be more crowded with guests now than at any time during the season.

W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, propose to start a new daily paper at Memphis on Monday next, to be called the Daily Press.

Wm. A. Glenn, Esq., was last week elected Judge of Davidson county, in place of Hon. W. K. Turner, deceased.

A correspondent of the Banner suggests the name of Gen. John C. Vaughan, of East Tennessee, as Speaker of the Senate, in October next.

The McKenize Times of the 19th says Mr. Garland Speed, of that vicinity, was thrown from his horse a few days since, and is, unfortunately, not dangerously hurt.

The Trenton Gazette thinks corn will sell in the Northern portion of Gibson county this fall at one dollar per barrel. The crop is unusually promising.

The Methodists of Maury county are looking for a great time at the Camp meeting soon to assemble at Hurricane Switch, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad.

Isaac Taylor, Esq., aged 93 years, died at his residence in Knox county on the 16th inst. He was for many years a member of the Knox county Court.

The Columbia Herald says somebody lately robbed our old friend Lewis C. Wagoner, of Linden, of $26 in Greenbacks, and $4000 in bonds, the property of the Bank of Tennessee.

The Methodists of Williamson county will have an old fashioned Camp meeting at Pope's old camp ground, ten miles South-west of Franklin, commencing Thursday, the 14th. We'd like to be there to see.

They have opened books at Columbia, for subscription of stock in the Duck River Valley Railroad. The route is designed to tap the North Western road at Johnson's.

In East Tennessee the peach crop is so abundant that the people cannot dry them all, and are not prepared to distill them into hell-broth, and are consequently canning vast quantities for winter use.

Hylinger, the convict who was castrated, shot by Mark L. Phelps, a guard at the penitentiary last Saturday, died on Sunday night. Gov. Senter has offered $250 reward for Phelps.

Mrs. Margaret Dunaway McCann, wife of Maj. J. R. McCann, died at her residence, Antioch, Davidson county, last Sunday night. She was a niece of Col. W. M. Dunaway of this city, and a lady, whom to know was to love.

Frank Hildinger, was sentenced to the penitentiary from Giles county, on the 7th day of the Circuit Court, at Pulaski, and was taken by the Sheriff to Nashville, arriving last Saturday morning, and before he had changed his clothes, was killed by M. L. Phelps who had been a guard at the prison for twenty years. Phelps escaped.

Judge Nathaniel Baxter, of the Davidson county Circuit Court, deeded the other day to Giles county, the Constitutionality of the privilege tax on lawyers, that the law is unconstitutional. The case was that of Col. A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, against the county clerk, and the tax was paid under protest. It was an agreed case, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the law.

WHIG AND TRIBUNE.

W. W. GATES,
D. M. CAMERON,
B. M. WINDOM,
Editors.

JACKSON, SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1871.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look out for the X mark. It will indicate that your subscription to the Whig and Tribune has expired; and it also means that we would be pleased to have you renew it.

STATE NEWS.

A young man's Christian Association was formed in Memphis last week.

Open county polls are said to be very common in the Williamsport country in Maury county.

The Bedford County Fair will commence at Shelbyville, Tuesday, October 10th.

Tullahoma, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has a population of one thousand.

Maj. Josiah H. Hubbard, of Huntington, has determined to move to Nashville, to practice law.

Joseph Ferguson, Tax collector of Dyer county, died at his home in Dyersburg last week.

John Canham Gamble, incarcerated in jail at Troy, died on Sunday night, 13th inst.

Hon. Em. Etheridge, we are glad to learn, is rapidly convalescing from a severe attack of sickness.

Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Sheriff of Shelby county, is in the Hermitage Springs, in Middle Tennessee.

The liquor dealers of Memphis have formed a league for mutual protection and defense.

A son of Hon. Jas. W. Deadrick, one of our Supreme Court Judges, has been elected to the Tennessee Legislature, from Pendleton county.

The city of Memphis voted last Saturday to subscribe $200,000 of stock to the Mississippi River Railroad.

W. W. Price, a son of Col. M. A. Price, the old mail contractor, died at his home in Wilson county last week.

Mod More, a noted gambler, at Memphis was shot and supposed to be fatally injured; by Wynne Cannon, on Saturday last.

The residence of Wm. H. Bratton, on White's Creek, Davidson county, was burned down on Wednesday of last week.

A valuable lead mine has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

A very rich lead mine—equal to any of the Golden State—has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

The Union City Courier says several stores in that place have recently been entered and robbed by burglars.

Rev. L. M. Sanford, an eminent Christian and esteemed citizen, died at his residence in Lawrence county, last week.

Col. A. S. Colyar of Nashville, occasionally tears himself away from the details of law, and indulges in a speech in favor of immigration.

The hotels at Lookout Mountain are said to be more crowded with guests now than at any time during the season.

W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, propose to start a new daily paper at Memphis on Monday next, to be called the Daily Press.

Wm. A. Glenn, Esq., was last week elected Judge of Davidson county, in place of Hon. W. K. Turner, deceased.

A correspondent of the Banner suggests the name of Gen. John C. Vaughan, of East Tennessee, as Speaker of the Senate, in October next.

The McKenize Times of the 19th says Mr. Garland Speed, of that vicinity, was thrown from his horse a few days since, and is, unfortunately, not dangerously hurt.

The Trenton Gazette thinks corn will sell in the Northern portion of Gibson county this fall at one dollar per barrel. The crop is unusually promising.

The Methodists of Maury county are looking for a great time at the Camp meeting soon to assemble at Hurricane Switch, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad.

Isaac Taylor, Esq., aged 93 years, died at his residence in Knox county on the 16th inst. He was for many years a member of the Knox county Court.

The Columbia Herald says somebody lately robbed our old friend Lewis C. Wagoner, of Linden, of $26 in Greenbacks, and $4000 in bonds, the property of the Bank of Tennessee.

The Methodists of Williamson county will have an old fashioned Camp meeting at Pope's old camp ground, ten miles South-west of Franklin, commencing Thursday, the 14th. We'd like to be there to see.

They have opened books at Columbia, for subscription of stock in the Duck River Valley Railroad. The route is designed to tap the North Western road at Johnson's.

In East Tennessee the peach crop is so abundant that the people cannot dry them all, and are not prepared to distill them into hell-broth, and are consequently canning vast quantities for winter use.

Hylinger, the convict who was castrated, shot by Mark L. Phelps, a guard at the penitentiary last Saturday, died on Sunday night. Gov. Senter has offered $250 reward for Phelps.

Mrs. Margaret Dunaway McCann, wife of Maj. J. R. McCann, died at her residence, Antioch, Davidson county, last Sunday night. She was a niece of Col. W. M. Dunaway of this city, and a lady, whom to know was to love.

Frank Hildinger, was sentenced to the penitentiary from Giles county, on the 7th day of the Circuit Court, at Pulaski, and was taken by the Sheriff to Nashville, arriving last Saturday morning, and before he had changed his clothes, was killed by M. L. Phelps who had been a guard at the prison for twenty years. Phelps escaped.

Judge Nathaniel Baxter, of the Davidson county Circuit Court, deeded the other day to Giles county, the Constitutionality of the privilege tax on lawyers, that the law is unconstitutional. The case was that of Col. A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, against the county clerk, and the tax was paid under protest. It was an agreed case, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the law.

WHIG AND TRIBUNE.

W. W. GATES,
D. M. CAMERON,
B. M. WINDOM,
Editors.

JACKSON, SATURDAY, AUG. 26, 1871.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look out for the X mark. It will indicate that your subscription to the Whig and Tribune has expired; and it also means that we would be pleased to have you renew it.

STATE NEWS.

A young man's Christian Association was formed in Memphis last week.

Open county polls are said to be very common in the Williamsport country in Maury county.

The Bedford County Fair will commence at Shelbyville, Tuesday, October 10th.

Tullahoma, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has a population of one thousand.

Maj. Josiah H. Hubbard, of Huntington, has determined to move to Nashville, to practice law.

Joseph Ferguson, Tax collector of Dyer county, died at his home in Dyersburg last week.

John Canham Gamble, incarcerated in jail at Troy, died on Sunday night, 13th inst.

Hon. Em. Etheridge, we are glad to learn, is rapidly convalescing from a severe attack of sickness.

Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Sheriff of Shelby county, is in the Hermitage Springs, in Middle Tennessee.

The liquor dealers of Memphis have formed a league for mutual protection and defense.

A son of Hon. Jas. W. Deadrick, one of our Supreme Court Judges, has been elected to the Tennessee Legislature, from Pendleton county.

The city of Memphis voted last Saturday to subscribe $200,000 of stock to the Mississippi River Railroad.

W. W. Price, a son of Col. M. A. Price, the old mail contractor, died at his home in Wilson county last week.

Mod More, a noted gambler, at Memphis was shot and supposed to be fatally injured; by Wynne Cannon, on Saturday last.

The residence of Wm. H. Bratton, on White's Creek, Davidson county, was burned down on Wednesday of last week.

A valuable lead mine has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

A very rich lead mine—equal to any of the Golden State—has been discovered on the farm of Thomas Park, near Lynchburg, Lincoln county.

The Union City Courier says several stores in that place have recently been entered and robbed by burglars.

Rev. L. M. Sanford, an eminent Christian and esteemed citizen, died at his residence in Lawrence county, last week.

Col. A. S. Colyar of Nashville, occasionally tears himself away from the details of law, and indulges in a speech in favor of immigration.

The hotels at Lookout Mountain are said to be more crowded with guests now than at any time during the season.

W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, propose to start a new daily paper at Memphis on Monday next, to be called the Daily Press.

Wm. A. Glenn, Esq., was last week elected Judge of Davidson county, in place of Hon. W. K. Turner, deceased.

A correspondent of the Banner suggests the name of Gen. John C. Vaughan, of East Tennessee, as Speaker of the Senate, in October next.

The McKenize Times of the 19th says Mr. Garland Speed, of that vicinity, was thrown from his horse a few days since, and is, unfortunately, not dangerously hurt.

The Trenton Gazette thinks corn will sell in the Northern portion of Gibson county this fall at one dollar per barrel. The crop is unusually promising.

The Methodists of Maury county are looking for a great time at the Camp meeting soon to assemble at Hurricane Switch, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad.

Isaac Taylor, Esq., aged 93 years, died at his residence in Knox county on the 16th inst. He was for many years a member of the Knox county Court.

The Columbia Herald says somebody lately robbed our old friend Lewis C. Wagoner, of Linden, of $26 in Greenbacks, and $4000 in bonds, the property of the Bank of Tennessee.